

BOROUGH OF CASTLE MORPETH
TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING ACT 1990

THE BOROUGH OF CASTLE MORPETH
(HIGH HOUSE, MORPETH)
TREE PRESERVATION ORDER 2000

The Borough Council of Castle Morpeth in this Order called "the Authority", in pursuance of the powers conferred in that behalf by Sections 198, 201 and 203 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990, hereby make the following Order:-

1. In this Order:-

"the Order"

means The Borough of Castle Morpeth (High House, Morpeth) Tree Preservation Order 2000

"the Act"

means the Town & Country Planning Act 1990.

means the owner in fee simple, either in possession or who has granted a lease or tenancy of which the unexpired portion is less than three years; lessee (including a sub-lessee) or tenant in possession, the unexpired portion of whose lease or tenancy is three years or more; and a mortgagee in possession; and means the Secretary of State for the Environment.

"the Secretary of State"

2. The authority hereby direct that section 201 (provisional tree preservation orders) shall apply to this Order and, accordingly, this Order shall take effect provisionally on 28th September 2000

3. Subject to the provisions of this Order and to the exemptions specified in the Second Schedule hereto, no person shall, except with the consent of the Authority and in accordance with the conditions, if any, imposed on such consent, cut down, top, lop, uproot, wilfully damage or wilfully destroy or cause or permit the cutting down, topping, lopping, uprooting, wilful damage or wilful destruction of any tree specified in the First Schedule hereto or comprised in a group of trees or in a woodland therein specified, the position of which trees, groups of trees and woodlands is defined in the manner indicated in the said First Schedule on the map annexed hereto, which map shall, for the purpose of such definition as aforesaid, prevail where any ambiguity arises between it and the specification in the said First Schedule.

4. An application for consent made to the Authority under Article 2 of this Order shall be in writing stating the reasons for making the application, and shall by reference if necessary to a plan specify the trees to which the application relates, and the operations for the carrying out of which consent is required.

5. (1) Where an application for consent is made to the authority under this Order, the Authority may grant such consent either unconditionally, or subject to such conditions (including conditions requiring the replacement of any tree by one or more trees on the site or in the immediate vicinity thereof) as the Authority may think fit, or may refuse consent.

Provided that where the application relates to any woodland specified in the First Schedule to this Order the Authority shall grant consent so far as accords with the principles of good forestry, except where, in the opinion of the authority, it is necessary in the interests of amenity to maintain the special character of the woodland or the woodland character of the area, and shall not impose conditions on such consent requiring replacement or replanting.

- (2) The Authority shall keep a register of all applications for consent under this Order containing information as to the nature of the application, the decision of the Authority thereon, any compensation awarded in consequence of such decision and any directions as to replanting of woodlands; and every such register shall be available for inspection by the public at all reasonable hours.

6. Where the Authority refuse consent under this Order or grant such consent subject to conditions they may when refusing or granting consent certify in respect of any trees for which they are so refusing or granting consent that they are satisfied:-

- (a) that the refusal or condition is in the interests of good forestry; or
- (b) in the case of trees, other than trees comprised in a group of trees or in a woodland, that the trees have an outstanding or special amenity value; or
- (c) in the case of trees which are comprised in a group of trees or in a woodland, that the group of trees or the woodland, as the case may be, has an outstanding or special amenity value, but a certificate shall not be given in the case of trees falling within (c) above if the application in respect of them has been referred by the Forestry Commissioners under Section 15 (1) (b) or 15(2) (a) of the Forestry Act 1967.

7. (1) Where consent is granted under this Order to fell any part of a woodland other than consent for silvicultural thinning then unless:-

- (a) such consent is granted for the purpose of enabling development to be carried out in accordance with a permission to develop land under Part III of the Act, or

- (b) the Authority with the approval of the Secretary of State dispense with replanting, the Authority shall give to the owner of the land on which that part of the woodland is situated a direction in writing specifying the manner in which and the time within which he shall replant such land and where such a direction is given and the part is felled the owner shall, subject to the provision of this Order and Section 204 of the Act, replant the said land in accordance with the direction.

- (2) Any direction given under paragraph (1) of this Article may include requirements as to:-

- (a) species
- (b) number of trees per acre (hectare)
- (c) the erection and maintenance of fencing necessary for protection of the replanting
- (d) the preparation of ground, draining, removal of brushwood, lop and top; and
- (e) protective measures against fire.

8. On imposing any condition requiring the replacement of any tree under Article 5 of the Order, or on giving a direction under Article 7 of this Order with respect to the replanting of woodlands, the Authority shall if such conditions or directions relates to land in respect of which byelaws made by the National Rivers Authority, an internal drainage board, a water undertaker or a sewerage undertaker (as defined in the Water Act 1989) or any other Authority whose functions are now exercised by the above bodies, restrict or regulate the planting of trees, notify the applicant or the owner of the land, as the case may be, of the existence of such byelaws and that any condition or direction has effect subject to the requirements of the byelaws, and the condition or direction shall have effect accordingly.

9. The provisions set out in the Third Schedule to this Order, being provisions of Part III of the Act adapted and modified for the purposes of this Order, shall apply in relation thereto.

10. (1) If, on a claim under this article, a person establishes that loss or damage has been caused or incurred in consequence of:-

- (a) the refusal of any consent required under this Order; or
- (b) the grant of any such consent subject to conditions, he shall, subject to paragraphs (3) and (4), be entitled to compensation from the authority.

(2) No claim, other than a claim made under paragraph (3), may be made under this article:-

- (a) if more than 12 months have elapsed since the date of the authority's decision or, where such a decision is the subject of an appeal to the Secretary of State, the date of the final determination of the appeal; or
- (b) if the amount in respect of which the claim would otherwise have been made is less than £500.00.

(3) Where the authority refuse consent under this Order for the felling in the course of forestry operations of any part of a woodland area, they shall not be required to pay compensation to any person other than the owner of the land; and such compensation shall be limited to an amount equal to any depreciation in the value of the trees which is attributable to deterioration in the quality of the timber in consequence of the refusal.

(4) In any other case, no compensation shall be payable to a person:-

SECOND SCHEDULE

This Order shall not apply so as to require the consent of the Authority to:-

- (1) the cutting down of any tree on land which is subject to a forestry dedication covenant where
 - (a) any positive covenants on the part of the owner of the land contained in the same deed as the forestry dedication covenant and at the time of the cutting down binding on the then owner of the land are fulfilled;
 - (b) the cutting down is in accordance with a plan of operations approved by the Forestry Commission under such Deed
- (2) the cutting down of any tree which is in accordance with a plan of operations approved by the Forestry Commission under a grant scheme under Section 1 of the Forestry Act 1979 except a scheme which applies to a forestry dedication covenant.
- (3) the cutting down, uprooting, topping or lopping or a tree
 - (a) by or at the request of the Post Office where the land on which tree situated is land which has been acquired for the purpose of the Post Office's undertaking and either works on such land cannot otherwise be carried out of the cutting down, uprooting, topping or lopping is for the purpose of securing safety in the operation of the undertaking; or the lopping in pursuance of the power conferred on any operator of a telecommunications code system by virtue of paragraph 19 of Schedule 2 to the Telecommunications Act 1984;
 - (b) by or at the request of
 - (i) a statutory undertaker or a holder of a licence under Section 6(1) of the Electricity Act 1989 where the land on which the tree is situated is operational land as defined by the Act and either works on such land cannot otherwise be carried out or the cutting down, uprooting, topping or lopping is for the purpose of securing safety in the operation of the undertaking
 - (ii) a licence holder within the meaning of Part 1 of the Electricity Act 1989, where such tree obstructs the construction by the licence holder of any electric line within the meaning of Part 1 of the said Act of 1989 or interferes or would interfere with the maintenance or working or any such line;
 - (iii) the National Rivers Authority or an internal drainage board established under the Water Act 1989, where the tree interferes or would interfere with the exercise of any of the functions of such authority or drainage board in relation to the maintenance, improvement or construction of water courses or of drainage works or a water undertaker or sewerage undertaker appointed under Section 11 of the Water Act 1989 in relation to their duties as such Undertakers; or

(iv) the Environment Agency to enable the Agency to carry out developments permitted by or under the Town and Country Planning (General Permitted Development) Order 1995;

69 (1) Every local planning authority shall keep a register containing information with respect to matters relevant to tree preservation orders made by the authority

(2) The register shall contain, as regards each such order -
(a) details of every application under that order and of the authority's decision (if any) in relation to each such application, and
(b) a statement as to the subject-matter of every appeal under the order and of the date and nature of the Secretary of State's determination of it.

(5) Every register kept under this section shall be available for inspection by the public at all reasonable hours.

70 (1) Subject to subsections (1A) and (1B), where an application is made to the

SECOND SCHEDULE

This Order shall not apply so as to require the consent of the Authority to:-

- (1) the cutting down of any tree on land which is subject to a forestry dedication covenant where
 - (a) any positive covenants on the part of the owner of the land contained in the same deed as the forestry dedication covenant and at the time of the cutting down binding on the then owner of the land are fulfilled;
 - (b) the cutting down is in accordance with a plan of operations approved by the Forestry Commission under such Deed
- (2) the cutting down of any tree which is in accordance with a plan of operations approved by the Forestry Commission under a grant scheme under Section 1 of the Forestry Act 1979 except a scheme which applies to a forestry dedication covenant.
- (3) the cutting down, uprooting, topping or lopping or a tree
 - (a) by or at the request of the Post Office where the land on which tree situated is land which has been acquired for the purpose of the Post Office's undertaking and either works on such land cannot otherwise be carried out of the cutting down, uprooting, topping or lopping is for the purpose of securing safety in the operation of the undertaking; or the lopping in pursuance of the power conferred on any operator of a telecommunications code system by virtue of paragraph 19 of Schedule 2 to the Telecommunications Act 1984;
 - (b) by or at the request of
 - (i) a statutory undertaker or a holder of a licence under Section 6(1) of the Electricity Act 1989 where the land on which the tree is situated is operational land as defined by the Act and either works on such land cannot otherwise be carried out or the cutting down, uprooting, topping or lopping is for the purpose of securing safety in the operation of the undertaking
 - (ii) a licence holder within the meaning of Part 1 of the Electricity Act 1989, where such tree obstructs the construction by the licence holder of any electric line within the meaning of Part 1 of the said Act of 1989 or interferes or would interfere with the maintenance or working or any such line;
 - (iii) the National Rivers Authority or an internal drainage board established under the Water Act 1989, where the tree interferes or would interfere with the exercise of any of the functions of such authority or drainage board in relation to the maintenance, improvement or construction of water courses or of drainage works or a water undertaker authority for consent under a tree preservation order -

- (a) they may grant consent under the order, either unconditionally or subject to such conditions as they think fit (including conditions limiting the duration of the consent or requiring the replacement of trees); or
- (b) they may refuse consent under the order.

(1A) Where an application relates to an area of woodland, the authority shall grant consent so far as accords with the practice of good forestry, unless they are satisfied that the granting of consent would fail to secure the maintenance of the special character of the woodland or the woodland character of the area.

(1B) Where the authority grant consent for the felling of trees in a woodland area they shall not impose conditions requiring replacement where such felling is carried out in the course of forestry operations (but may give directions for securing replanting).

- 75. (1) Without Prejudice to the following provisions as to the revocation or modification of consents, any consent under the Order, including any direction as to replanting given by the authority on the granting of such consent, shall (except in so far as the consent otherwise provides), ensure for the benefit of the land and of all persons for the time being interested in it.

77. Reference of applications to the Secretary of State:-

- (1) The Secretary of State may give directions to the Authority requiring applications for consent under the Order to be referred to him instead of being dealt with by the Authority.
- (2) A direction under this Section may relate either to particular application or to application of a class specified in the direction
- (3) Any application in respect of which a direction under this Section has effect shall be referred to the Secretary of State accordingly
- (4) Where an application for a consent under the Order is referred to the Secretary of State under this Section, the provisions of Articles 4 and 5 of the Order shall apply as they apply to such an application which falls to be determined by the Authority.
- (5) Before determining an application referred to him under this Section the Secretary of State shall, if either the application or the Authority wish, give each of them an opportunity of appearing before, and being heard by, a person appointed by the Secretary of State for the purpose
- (6) The decision of the Secretary of State on any application referred to him under this Section shall be final

- 78. (1) Where the authority -

- (a) refuse an application for consent under a tree preservation order or grant it subject to conditions;
- (b) refuse an application for any consent, agreement or approval of that authority required by a condition imposed on a grant of consent under such an order or grant it subject to conditions;
- (c) give a direction under a tree preservation order, or refuse an application for any consent, agreement or approval of that authority required by such a direction; or
- (d) fail to determine any such application as is referred to in paragraph (a) to (c) within the period of 8 weeks beginning with the date on which the application was received by the authority, the application may by notice approval to the Secretary of State.

- (2) A person who has made an application for consent under the Order may also appeal to the Secretary of State if the Authority have neither:-
 - (a) given notice to the application of their decision on the application; nor
 - (b) given notice to him that the application has been referred to the Secretary of State in accordance with directions given under Section 77 above
- (3) Any appeal under this section shall be made by notice in writing addressed to the Secretary of State, specifying the ground on which the appeal is made; and such notice shall be served -
 - (a) in respect of a matter mentioned in any of paragraphs (a) to (c) of subsection (1), within the period of 28 days from the receipt of notification of the authority's decision or direction or within such longer period as the Secretary of State may allow;
 - (b) in respect of such a failure as is mentioned in paragraph (d) of that subsection, at any time after the expiration of the period mentioned in that paragraph, but if that authority have informed the application that the application has been refused, or granted subject to conditions, before an appeal has been made, an appeal may only be made against that refusal or grant.
- (4) The appellant shall serve on the authority a copy of the notice mentioned in subsection (3).
- (5) For the purpose of the application of section 79(1), in relation to an appeal made under subsection (1)(d), it shall be assumed that the authority decided to refuse the application in question.

date the advertisement first appears.

- (5) The period referred to in subsection 2(b) must not be less than 14 days from the expiration of the period referred to in subsection (2) (a).
- (6) The Authority shall send a copy of any advertisement published under subsection (2) to the Secretary of State not more than three days after the publication.

(7) If:-

- (a) No person claiming to be affected by the Order has given notice to the Secretary of State under Sub-section (2) (a) within the period referred to in that subsection, and
- (b) the Secretary of State has not directed within that period that the Order be submitted to him for confirmation.

The Order shall take effect at the expiry of the period referred to in sub-section 2(b) without being confirmed by the Secretary of State as required by Section 98 (1)

- (8) This Section does not apply to an Order revoking or modifying a consent granted or deemed to have been granted by the Secretary of State under Part III, Part VII or Part VIII of the Act.
